

DISCLAIMER

The activity is organised by Southgate Sylvania – ISPT/JLL (“Organiser”). Participation in this event means that you, as the parent or guardian, hereby agree to the following:

1. You and your child are attending this activity at your own risk. You agree that you are responsible for creating and maintaining your own safe activity space that is free from any dangers to your child or property.
2. You agree that it is your responsibility to prevent your child from engaging in unsafe, antisocial or dangerous behaviour or any behaviour that may be viewed as an interruption to others. Furthermore, you and your child will act appropriately for the entirety of the event.
3. If the Organiser views any action or behaviour as unsuitable, the Organiser (or any of its employees or agents) reserves the right to, in their absolute discretion, remove any participant immediately and prevent them from attending any future events.
4. By participating in the event, at certain points, you agree to have your child’s image displayed (in full) on screen for all participants to view.
5. You release the Organiser from any liability or responsibility for any injury or any property damage that occurs during the event and release the Organiser from any claims or actions connected with the participation in this event.
6. The Organiser and Dance2bFit have taken all care for this event to be held in a safe and friendly environment. Invitation to attend this event is via the Organiser’s VIP database. Dance2bFit have two operators throughout the entire class, one who is specifically monitoring screens at all times and will immediately black out and remove those who engage in unsuitable content. By signing up to this event, you (as the parent or guardian) give permission for your child to appear on screen. An attendees list will be recorded.
